PULSAR®
High Performance Apparel

When it comes to layering up for safety and comfort, PULSAR® has you covered.

Our mid-layer collection is designed to work together seamlessly, providing unmatched protection in any weather. From chilly, wet days to milder conditions, our garments are built to perform.

Explore the Collection:

Body Warmer: This versatile piece offers four different ways to wear, meeting the highest EN ISO:20471 standards.

Reversible and with detachable sleeves, it layers perfectly with our Unlined Storm Coat, ensuring you stay safe and adaptable on the job.

Polar Fleece: Designed for maximum warmth and protection, the PULSAR® Polar Fleece is also EN ISO:20471 certified. Its fixed mesh lining and wind-resistant features make it the ideal partner to our Unlined Storm Coat.

Elevate your workwear

PULSAR® – where every layer works as hard as you do.
